REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
2. Claims 9-28 are allow. The specific limitations of "...an average strain amount ϵ_1 (average) of the double hetero mesa-stripe is a compression strain (ϵ_1 (critical) $\geq \epsilon_1$ (average) > 0), and an average strain amount ϵ_2 (average) of the recombination layer is a tensile strain. ($-\epsilon_2$ (critical) $\leq \epsilon_2$ (average) < 0)...", in the combination as claimed in claims 9 and 14.
3. Regarding claim 9, Sakata et al. disclose: a double hetero mesa stripe serving as a first semiconductor laminated product including at least strained multiple quantum well active layer formed by selective growth on a semiconductor substrate (Figure 4, Col 6, Lines 1-67); and recombined layers (the two other mesa stripe layers on either side of the middle active layer) serving as second semiconductor laminated products simultaneously formed on both sides of the double hetero mesa strip at a predetermined interval in the selective growth (Figure 4, Col 6, Lines 1-67). Equation 1 which deals with the average strain of multiple layers is inherent to the structure of Sakata et al. Equation 2 which deals with critical thickness are inherent to a strained semiconductor layers (please see G.P. Agrawal, pages 17-18). Sakata et al. do not disclose: a cap layer formed on cladding layer (34), average strain amount of double hetero mesa stripe is a compression strain and an average strain amount of the recombination layer is a tensile strain.

4. However the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest the limitations stated above due to the amendment. The limitations stated above are not anticipated or made obvious by the prior art of record in the examiner's opinion.
5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
